

KINDNESS CORNER

Blue Route Mall will host a Kindness Corner on a weekly basis, to give as many registered, charitable organisations the opportunity to raise awareness and funds for their projects. The Kindness Corner is dedicated to registered NGO's free of charge all year round.

The Kindness Corner will be positioned in a pre-determined area within the mall and may be relocated depending on what court space is available in a particular week. As we have limited space, we unfortunately have to restrict participants to a small set up which will be negotiated with the Blue Route Mall Marketing Manager. Blue Route Mall is able to assist with the following equipment only: tressle tables, table cloths, cocktail tables, bar stool and chairs. Any other equipment, not specified above, would need to be hired by the participating NGO but approval would need to be given by the Marketing Manager first.

As per all other exhibition requests, Blue Route Mall will look at each NGO's application individually and assess your needs and objectives. If your application is selected, you will be required to sign an exhibition agreement and provide proof of public liability.

1. Contents of tables

Unfortunately tables will not be allowed to sell any foods / beverages (this includes sweets) or pets (i.e. kittens, puppies, birds, fish etc.) There are indeed a great variety of items that charities usually sell such as: arts & crafts, cards, candles, picture frames, antiques, wooden children's toys etc. All charities MUST specify on their application form exactly what they intend to sell. Under no circumstances are funds to be raised in any form except the sale of goods, as declared in your application form.

2. General

Please note that, if you wish to participate in the Kindness Corner your exhibit must be manned during trading hours:

Monday to Saturday: 09h00 to 19h00

Sundays and public holidays: 09h00 to 17h00

Failure to do so will result in your exhibition being removed.

Important: We require your NGO number on the application form. Only registered charities may participate in the Kindness Corner.
